What we do

How does TSGCA protect my personal information?	To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. Access to personal information is granted to our branch-office and home-office associates only to provide investments and services to clients or to serve another legitimate business need.
How does TSGCA collect my personal information?	We collect your personal information, for example, when you: • Open an account • Give us your contact information • Seek advice about your investments • Tell us about your investment or retirement portfolio • Enter into an investment advisory contract We also collect your personal information from credit bureaus, affiliates or other companies.
Why can't I limit sharing?	Federal law gives you the right to limit only: • Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness • Affiliates from using your information to market to you • Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Definitions

Affiliates	Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. • Our affiliates include financial companies such as The Spaventa Group, TSG Alpha Partners, LLC and TSG Insurance Services.
Non Affiliates	Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies. • BCF does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you.
Joint Marketing	A formal agreement between non affiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you. • We do not currently have any joint marketing agreements in place.
